

 3,000+ Twitter followers

 3,200+ monthly website visitors

 25,000+ Optimal Aging Portal email alert subscribers

50+ stakeholder dialogues held over 8 years

35+ citizen panels convened over 4 years

30+ rapid syntheses produced in 3, 10 or 30 days

Soon to be the host of the world's most comprehensive source for systematic literature on 15 program and service areas

-
1
Citizenship
-
2
Children & youth services
-
3
Consumer & social services
-
4
Consumer protection
-
5
Culture & gender
-
6
Economic development & growth
-
7
Education
-
8
Employment
-
9
Food safety & security
-
10
Government services
-
11
Housing
-
12
Infrastructure
-
13
Public safety & justice
-
14
Recreation
-
15
Transportation

- 2009
McMaster Health Forum launched
- 2009
First stakeholder dialogue convened
- 2010
Became official WHO Collaborating Centre for Evidence-informed Policy
- 2011
Health Systems Evidence website launched
- 2013
Rapid Response program begun
- 2013
First citizen panel convened
- 2014
Optimal Aging Portal unveiled
- 2015
Health Systems Learning launched
- 2016
A book about Ontario's health system published
- 2017
Forum+ launched

Systematic reviews in Health Systems Evidence by Canadian focus and recency

7,000+
systematic reviews
in Health
Systems Evidence

12,000+
registered users
and many more
ad hoc users

Forum-led workshops for health-system leaders

1,900+
policymakers, managers,
professionals, researchers,
and students have been trained on how to reform, renew or strengthen health systems based on the best available research evidence

- = Home of participants attending workshops
- = Location of off-site workshops